OUT ADVENTURES TAKES HOME 2 IGLTA MARKETING AWARDS

May 12, 2009 – TORONTO, CANADA

Toronto based OUT Adventures was the big winner at the 2009 International Gay & Lesbian Travel Association's annual convention, taking home Best Website and Best Sales Collateral awards. That represents 2 out of only 3 awards presented each year. The awards gala happened this past Saturday, May 9th in OUT Adventures' hometown of Toronto.

"We are thrilled to be recognized by this global organization of over 1,300 members" says Robert Sharp, Co-Founder of OUT Adventures. "We aimed to provide a clean website and brochure that speaks to our customer base, and couldn't be happier that our peers have identified this effort".

John Tanzella, Executive Director of IGLTA adds "We are very excited to have OUT Adventures as a member of IGLTA, and we congratulate them on winning two awards for their marketing efforts at our recent Annual Convention. OUT Adventures is truly a leader in providing incredible itineraries all over the globe, and ensuring value for their clients".

The OUT Adventures website can be viewed at www.out-adventures.com. And they encourage both clients and industry partners to choose the eco-friendly option of downloading their brochure at http://www.out-adventures.com/web/brochure/.
