

Trout Point Lodge of Nova Scotia

Inn & Cottages located in East Kemptville, Yarmouth County, Nova Scotia, adjacent to the Tobeatic Wilderness Area and the Southern Nova Scotia Biosphere Reserve. Opened since July, 2000.

Buildings: 8-room Great Lodge, a handcrafted log & stone lodge on the banks of the Tusket River with two dining rooms, Great Room, café, 8 stone fireplaces, and art gallery

River Bend Lodge: 3-room shingle-style chalet on the Tusket River with cathedral ceilinged Great Room

Black Bear Cottage 2-bedroom house on East Meadow Lake with full kitchen, deck, sunporch

Cub Cottage honeymooners cottage on East Meadow Lake with king-bed loft bedroom, living room, deck, full kitchen

The property is regularly inspected and approved by Canada Select, AAA, Sawday's Guides, & Conde Nast Johansens.

Official Ratings: Canada Select 4.5 stars (last inspected October, 2007); Hotel Association of Canada

ECOMmodation Program: 5 Green Keys (1 of only 5 properties in Canada)

Location: 100 forested acres at the confluence of the Tusket & Napier Rivers next to the largest protected wilderness area in Atlantic Canada, 30 minutes from Yarmouth & 3 hours from Halifax

Activities & Amenities: canoing, kayaking, lake & river swimming, hiking, nature trails, outdoor cedar barrel sauna, riverside cedar hot tub, boardwalks, 3-acre island & bridge, cooking classes & culinary vacations, in-room massage, exercise room, BVLGARI amenities, guided fishing, kayak, & hiking excursions

Awards: Parks Canada Sustainable Tourism Award (2007); "The Stay List" National Geographic Traveler magazine (2008)

Recent Reviews: #2 culinary vacation destination, (conciierge.com/Condé-Nast); Top 10 value hotels worldwide (gayot.com: the guide to the good life); Top 10 cooking vacations (ForbesTraveler); one of only 3 hotels in Canada chosen by German design publisher Taschen for The Hotel Book: Great Escapes North America; "Perfect places" Hide & Chic magazine (Netherlands); Green Places to Stay (Sawdays, England); "Une cabane en Amérique" Elle magazine (France); "Canada's Secret Hideaways" National Geographic Traveler; "Southern Hospitality" EnRoute

Affiliations: Condé Nast Johansens inspected & recommended; Voyages pour la planète (France); Canticum Hotels: Eco-luxury; Five Star Alliance; Nature & Kind Trusted Partner

Relaxation in the heart of the Canadian wilderness. Nestled next to the Tusket River, immediately adjacent to the Tobeatic Wilderness Area of southern Nova Scotia, Trout Point is undoubtedly the most superb wilderness lodge in Atlantic Canada, offering remarkable hospitality and designed for absolute Haute Rustic comfort. Positioned so that every room boasts water views, Trout Point shelters its guests in an utterly civilized outpost amidst absolute wilderness. The enchanting location & spacious accommodations make for a most relaxing vacation. The Lodge, open from mid May to late October, provides unique experiences, including culinary vacation & Romance in the Wilderness packages, guided fishing, in-room massage, hiking & birding, kayaking & canoing, lake & river swimming, outdoor sauna & wood-fired hot tub, and more-- with whale watching, sea kayaking, and great golf nearby. All with a recognized commitment to environmental sensitivity.

Trout Point Lodge, 189 Trout Point Road, Kemptville, Nova Scotia BOW 1Y0,

+1 (902) 482-8360

www.troutpoint.com

ANNUALLY
INSPECTED
FOR THE
INDEPENDENT
TRAVELLER