

TalkDriveDine.com has partnered with Lingo to offer the highest rated VoIP broadband phone service. Lingo is Wired Magazines Editors Pick. "Most inexpensive plan. Tidy online account manager. No hold time for tech support. Optional mobile plan lets you save big bucks when making international calls on your cell phone calls were superb, soundwise". - Wired Magazine.

In addition, TalkDriveDine.com also provides an opportunity for people to earn extra income by becoming a TDD Player to promote Lingo broadband phone service and TalkDriveDine.com as a home based business opportunity. A TDD Player can earn commissions and bonuses including the TDD Car Payment Program that allows up to $500 in extra bonuses to be applied to their car payment or any other bills. TDD players can tap into the explosive network marketing structure in TalkDriveDine.com to earn extra income. The company uses a binary compensation plan with enhanced payouts, bonuses and incentives.

Included in the TDD Player membership is a $1000 Meal Ticket that allows the member to customize their own program by picking only their favorite restaurants that they want included in the Meal Ticket. They also receive a personalized multimedia website and complete real-time back office to track individual and team sales. TDD Players also have access to collateral materials including color brochures, business cards, 24-hour recorded opportunity messages, and live conference calls. TDD Players also have access to TDD Trainers to help expand their Team.

TalkDriveDine.com is one of the only Network Marketing companies to offer a Non-Profit Program. This allows 501(c)3 organizations the ability to fundraise through TalkDriveDine.com. "This is a great opportunity for charities to generate much needed resources in these challenging economic times" - TDD
